

Ancestors of Thomas Gene Howard

Generation 1

1. Thomas Gene Howard, son of Clarice Gene Howard and Amizona Lucille Isbell was born on Jun 16, 1955 in Sheffield, Colbert Co, AL. He married Judy Mariea Batchelor on Oct 16, 1982 in Orange Baptist Church Halleyville, Winston Co., AL, daughter of Wayne Ray Batchelor and Joyce Faye Arthur. She was born on Nov 19, 1959 in Haleyville, Winston Co., AL.

Notes for Thomas Gene Howard:

Thomas Gene Howard: Married at Orange Baptist Church, Haleyville, AL

Notes for Judy Mariea Batchelor:

Lovely, fair complexion and beautiful auburn hair. Married T. Howard at Orange Baptist Church, Russellville, AL.

Generation 2

2. Clarice Gene Howard, son of Thomas Reed Howard and Leo Pearlina Thornton was born on Dec 23, 1933. He died on Feb 21, 1991. He married Amizona Lucille Isbell on Jun 23, 1951.
3. Amizona Lucille Isbell, daughter of Travis Hasford Isbell and Alice Lorraine Kiser was born on Apr 06, 1934 in Spring Valley, Colbert Co., AL. She died on Oct 19, 2004 in Birmingham, AL.

Notes for Clarice Gene Howard:

birth: Joyce Howard

Ira Howard: He would chase me around with a small snake.

Thomas Gene Howard: I never knew he handled snakes. He played all three varsity sports and because my mother was a member of the Glee Club, so was he. This was very unusual for the early 1950s. His high school football coach, John "Two-head" Manley told the team that Clarice had to "squat to pee", hence the nickname "Squatsy". He embraced this moniker as I have seen him sign hand-written notes as "Squatsy". I have talked with many of his contemporaries who only knew him as "Squatsy".

Gravestone: d. 2.20.1991

Notes for Amizona Lucille Isbell:

Thomas Gene Howard: Her birth certificate listed no middle name. However, her mother, Alice, insisted Amizona's middle name is Lucille - hence the nickname Lucy .

Amizona Lucille Isbell and Clarice Gene Howard had the following children:

- i. Regina Ann Howard was born on May 18, 1952. She died on Jun 04, 2020 in Sheffield, Colbert Co, AL. She married Ronald Gene McNatt on Sep 27, 1969, son of Floyd McNatt and Jean Brown. He was born on Jan 25, 1950.

Notes for Thomas Reed Howard:
Birth, death, marr: Joyce Howard
Lived in Mobile at 1658 Hurtel Street

Reed worked for his cousin Luther King. He kept books at a cotton gin in Lauderdale Co. then moved to Town Creek in abt 1939 to run a store for Luther King.

Later, he and his cousin Bert Howard bought a store in Leighton, AL.

According to Army discharge document, he entered service 1-22-1944 and owned Reed Howard Grocery Store in Tuscumbia, AL for 2 1/2 years prior to entry. So, he opened the store approximately Summer 1941. This store was located on Wilson Dam Rd. close to McReynold's (sic) Crossroad which is the intersection of old Hwy 20 and Wilson Dam Rd.

Notes for Leo Pearline Thornton:
Name, Birth, marr: Joyce Howard

Thomas Gene Howard: At the request of Leo Pearline, the body was cremated and there was no service. Later the remains were buried at Barnett Cemetery. Granny (Pearl) told me she was fishing with her father and witnessed the first truck load of rock delivered to begin construction of Wheeler Dam. This dam construction began in 1933.

Leo Pearline Thornton and Thomas Reed Howard had the following children:

7. Alice Lorraine Kiser, daughter of Alfred Richard Kiser and Margaret Jane Allen was born on May 05, 1902 in Colbert, Alabama, USA. She died on Jan 18, 1998 in Colbert, Alabama, USA.

Notes for Travis Hasford Isbell:

Travis died at home with wife, son Raymond, and daughter Amizona present among others. Clyde McGrogor was there and inserted Travis' dentures after death.

Travis and Alice married at the home of the bride by Judge of Probate N. P. Tompkins.

Birth: 10.5.1902 [Amizona Isbell]

Notes for Alice Lorraine Kiser:

She began to notice Travis when her Papa (father) would shoe Travis' mule.

She dated Doss? Thomas, Dave Sledge, Russ Franks.

Marr. P.: Pat Kiser

Raymond Eugene Isbell: Alice was very close to her sister-in-law, Ida Louvinia (Isbell) Kiser.

Notes for Leonard Edgar Isbell:
Leonard and Ruby had no children. Rusty Taylor spent a great deal of time with them but was never adopted.
From conversation w/L. Isbell: He helped build Hwy 157 in 1929 (at about age 17) for $2.50/day. He used mules and a dump wagon. The mules belonged to his 1st cousin Lonnie Isbell. Josie and her husband Russell Fell came to share crop with his father Burt who lived on the west side of the railroad on 157. The only mules belonged to Burt. As a result, Leonard hired out to Lonnie. Due to transportation problems at the time, Leonard lived with Lonnie and worked for 7 years. Lonnie and Jim Kirk farmed together and "Old man Kirk" paid Leonard $12/month.

Notes for Ruby Mae Trousdale:
Ruby and Leonard had no children. Rusty Taylor spent a great deal of time with them but never was adopted.

- xvi. Manervia Isbell was born on Sep 04, 1892. She died on Nov 07, 1979 in Ethridge, TN. She married William Amos Stanley on Jan 17, 1907 in Colbert, Alabama, USA. He was born on Nov 03, 1875. He died on May 17, 1965.

Notes for Manervia Isbell:

Charlie and Clark, Manervia's much older brothers lived near the Isbell home place so she grew up with nieces and nephews. They were Will, Annie and Fronie. They had to walk about two miles across the woods and fields (as the crow flies) to reach school, held in Mount Moriah Baptist Church, which was a log building. Later a frame building was erected nearby for the school. This school was closed in the late 1920's and students were transferred to Spring Valley.

Manervia was ten years old when her father died in 1902. She and Anis continued to live with their widowed mother and farm their land by plowing their mare named Molly. Molly also pulled the buggy or surrey to church on Sunday. Along about this time her grandfather, Riley J. Crittenden, came to live with them. He died in 1907 and is buried in Old Mount Moriah Cemetery.

The girls missed quite a lot from school to do whatever needed to be done. They even dug a cistern one year.

Manervia was big and strong and accepted responsibility at an early age. By the time she married at the age of fourteen, she could cook, sew, spin, knit, and quilt. When she was sixteen, a neighbor's baby died. Manervia prepared and dressed the infant for burial. None of the older ladies present felt like they could perform this necessary duty.

Manervia Isbell and William Amos Stanley married on January 27, 1907. Their marriage is recorded in Tuscumbia, Alabama.

Will was born November 3, 1875. His parents were Edward Jarman Stanley and Mary Elizabeth (Neyman) Stanley. Edward was a schoolteacher and a deacon according to the Town Creek Baptist church minutes. Will had five younger brothers, Jim, Charlie, Henry, Cleveland and Robert; he had a younger sister, Ruth.

The couple lived near her birthplace for several years before they bought a forty-three acre farm less than a mile west and built a larger house for their growing family. This was in 1915 or 1916. A tornado destroyed this house on April 5, 1936. Will had awakened the family and they all gathered in one room before he saw the tornado coming across Stark Mountain in the southwest. It sounded like a freight train and in a few seconds the house was carried through the air and landed beside the dug well, which had the top blown off. The room that the family was in was not completely destroyed. The torrential rains, which followed, caused further damage to the remaining furniture. Trees were uprooted, split and bent. A piece of tin was driven into the truck of a tree by the force. Shreds of window curtains were seen in the treetops and debris was everywhere. This catastrophe placed a burden on Will and Manervia, but friends and neighbors helped rebuild and the Red Cross furnished part of the material.

Above is the "Will and Manervia Stanley Family Home", built in 1936, after the tornado, on April 5, and destroyed the first one that he and Manervia built on their 34-acres farm. After Manervia's death the property sold. This house was torn down and replaced with a nice brick home.

Manervia was a great wife and mother. She worked willingly with her hands to provide for her household. Her day began before break of dawn and ended when every child was in bed with a sense of security for the night. Life before and during the Great Depression years was not easy for women. They had to be thrifty and often had to improvise. The seventh child, Mildred, needed a coat to begin school in 1930. Manervia ripped apart, washed and pressed the pieces of her mother's long corduroy coat and made a coat for her daughter. She was a great seamstress and did all the sewing for her girls. She could look at a picture of a dress in Sears Roebuck catalog and make a copy of it by using her own cut newspaper pattern.

Quilt making was Manervia's hobby. She loved to make the quilt tops from scraps and then quilt then by hand, making beautiful uniform stitches. It took many quilts to sufficiently cover five beds on the cold winter nights of long ago.

Numerous other tasks were required of Manervia. She dried and canned fruit from the family orchard. Her green beans were canned in half-gallon jars. The filled jars were placed inside a fifty-pound lard can. The water was added to cover the jars. An open fire outside in the yard was kept burning just enough to keep them boiling for two hours. She also made sauerkraut, hominy, jelly, molasses, and in the wintertime helped with the hog killing for winter? meat. She canned the sausage, which was made from the meat scraps. Manervia raised chickens and geese for meat, eggs, and for feather mattresses and pillows.

The laundry was done by hand on a washboard, using homemade lye soap. Guano sack towels were boiled outside in a huge black cast iron kettle of water. Using smoothing irons that had been kept hot on top of a wood cook stove, she ironed everything washed. Manervia starched all cotton dresses. White shirts and even pillowcases.

Will was a hard working farmer, Democrat and a Baptist. He had a severe hearing disability from an early age on. Will enjoyed playing the harmonica and juke harp and his favorite piece to play was "Red Wing". His hobby was playing checkers on Sunday afternoons with his neighbor, Floyd Smith. He also taught Pride, the fourth son, to play and enjoy the game. Will was well educated for a man of his day, and he read every newspaper he could get his hands on. He could help all his children with their homework for school.

Will, being much older than Manervia, was content to travel in a wagon pulled by a team of mules. He never wanted to drive the 1924 Model T Ford, which Manervia bought and paid for by selling her thirty acres of inherited land.

She owned other cars later and drove until she was in her 70's. Her first drivers' license was bought when she was about sixty-five years old. Manervia Isbell Stanley a Model T Ford car, back when the Model T first became available to the public. That is Hubert standing beside it on the last page.

Worked ceased on Sunday at the Stanley house except for cooking of meals. The children often brought other children home with them from church. Manervia would play the old-fashion pump organ and the older children would sing. She taught Bobby Lee, the third son, to play also. This old organ must have been damaged in the tornado, because it was no good afterwards. The eight children born to Will and Manervia were as follows: Hubert Roy (11-19-1907 .. 04-19-1978), his younger sister and his younger brother walked from the Isbell home place to Mount Moriah School. Hubert would take a big forked stick along with him to kill any snake that might be on the path. He became a farmer, ironworker and owned a grocery store at some point in his life. He married Mary Alma Masterson from Wolf Springs and they reared three daughters, Mary Sharlene, Faye Sharlett and Brenda Gail. Lepha (08-05-1909 .. 03-24-1986), was the oldest daughter, and had a big hand in caring for the younger children of the family. She married Freddie Leon Fisher, a local man. He worked at Reynolds Alloys plant and was a deacon of Mount Moriah Church. They had two sons, Clyde Harold and Jerry Leon. Velma Lorene (12-06-1922 .. 12-09-1983), married Grady Lawrence Newman. He became a Baptist minister. They were the parents of eight children as follows: Reba Joyce, Freida Pearl, Velma Shirley, Annette, William Grady (Billy), Karen Rose, Arthur Harris and Donna Sue. Thearon Clines (12-01-1914 .. 05-12-1977), graduated from Florence State and his business was Public Accounting. He was an army veteran of WWII and guarded German prisoners. Thearon married Delma Whitfield Quinn and became stepfather to Jeanette and Jerry Quinn. Robert (Bobby) Lee (09-05-1918 .. 08-06-1988) was musically inclined and loved to play the guitar and mandolin when he was young. He had serious health problems and lost both legs before his death. He married Margaret Lucille Elkins Dixon and they had three sons, Robert Lindon, James Gary and Roger Dale. Lucille had an older son, Hollis Edward Dixon. William Pride (08-30-1920 .. 01-26-1967) was a rural mail carrier and was in the army for a short time before WWII ended. He married Annette Smithson first and they had two daughters, Clare Jane and Nancy Jean. He later married Geraldine Smith Bateman and they had two daughters, Patricia Ann and Marilyn, Pride was stepfather to Linda Kay and John Warren Bateman. Mildred Elizabeth (09-20-1925) inherited her mother's love for quilt making. She married Robert Maurice Ballentine from Lawrence County, Tennessee. They have three children, Robert Keith, Cheryl Jean and Danita Shelaine. Bob Ballentine was an army veteran of WWII and retired from Murray Ohio Mfg. Co. of Lawrenceburg. He was deacon of Ethridge First Baptist Church. Rubye Etoile (03-22-1928). She retired from TVA and is married to Aubrey Glenn Smith. They have two children, Glenn Wayne and Carol Dean. Aubrey is a Navy veteran of WWII and retired from Southern Railroad. He is a deacon of Mount Moriah Baptist Church. Will Stanley died May 17, 1965 and Manervia Isbell Stanley died November 7, 1979. They are both buried in Mount Moriah Cemetery. Bobby Lee and Pride are buried there also. Hubert and Alma, Lepha and Freddie, Velma and Grady, Thearon and Delma are all buried in Colbert County Memorial Gardens. Bob Ballentine is buried in Lawrence County Memorial Gardens of Lawrenceburgs, Tenn.

James R. Isbell

- Birth 5 Oct 1791 Sevier County, Tennessee, USA
- Death 4 Jun 1844 Lim Rock, Jackson County, Alabama, USA
- Burial Blue Spring Cemetery
<<https://www.findagrave.com/cemetery/21686/blue-spring-cemetery>> Larkinsville, Jackson County, Alabama, USA
- Memorial ID 105684640

He was born October 5, 1791 in Tennessee, and died June 4, 1844, at Lim Rock, Jackson County, Alabama.

His name is given as James R. Isbell in some records.

Because he had a nephew (son of brother Levi) named James Richardson Isbell, some believe his name was James Richardson.

1813

James Isbell married Elizabeth Birdwell on Saturday, May 1, 1813 by Rev. John Canterbury at Enon Baptist Church in Huntsville, Madison Co., Mississippi Territory -- later Alabama Territory and State of Alabama (Madison County, Alabama Marriage Book 1, page 104: license issued Saturday, April 24, 1813). Enon is now the First Baptist Church of Huntsville. A family tree said they married on Saturday, May 1, 1813, which was May Day. Enon Church records (p.11) show Church Service was conducted Saturday, May 1.

Elizabeth Birdwell was the daughter of John Birdwell, one of the founders of Enon Church (Isbell Country by Odessa Morrow Isbell, pp. 19-20, 229; The Mitchells of Linn Flatt by Gwenneth Mitchell, p.215).

Aug. 23, 1815: James Isbell was granted a 10-acre tract on Roundtree Creek of Elk River, Lincoln Co., TN.

William Isbell also had a 10-acre tract in 1815/1818-1819 (witness Miller Isbell) in 2nd dist. on north side of Elk River, on headwaters of Roundtree Creek.

Levi Isbell married Sarah H. Birdwell on Aug. 10, 1816.

John Birdwell offered slaves to his daughters and sons-in-law, James and Levi Isbell. Sarah Birdwell and husband Rev. Levi Isbell refused but Elizabeth Birdwell and James Isbell accepted theirs (Isbell Country, p. 20; The Mitchells of Linn Flatt by Gwenneth Mitchell; The Heritage of Marshall County, Alabama, p.199).

1818

24 Feb. 1818, Limestone County, Alabama: Moses Birdwell was assigned 158.60 acres by James Isbell (#1156) at cost of $317.20. Moses Birdwell paid $77.30 in stock and cash on 23 Feb. 1818. On 16 Oct. 1818 James Isbell completed the transfer of land to Moses Birdwell. (Recorded in Old Land Records, Limestone Co.; cited in Birdwell Family Tree by Velma Schonder.)

4 Sept. 1821, Moses Birdwell received certificate #664 in Limestone Co. outlining the installment payments he needed to receive the patent on the land he had purchased from James Isbell. Moses Birdwell bought the land with aid from Congress in a law that gave relief to purchasers of public lands prior to 1 July 1820. In 1821 Moses Birdwell owed $237.90.

27 Sept. 1822: Moses Birdwell paid the balance owing on this date and received the final certificate for this land, certificate #1156.

25 Oct. 1826: Moses Birdwell sold for $1000 to Stephen Flinn, both of Limestone Co., the land (or a portion thereof?) he had been assigned by James Isbell (Limestone Deed Book 2, pp.278-9; Alabama Records by Pauline Jones Gandrud, vol.24, p.45). The land was the SW 1/4 of sec. 3, twp.4, range 4W.

1819

Before Statehood (1819) James Isbell and brothers John and Levi had filed claims to several tracts of land in Madison County and present-day Jackson County. (Alabama Territorial Land Records.)

1820

James Isbell is in Lincoln County, Tennessee census:

1 m 26-44 (James Isbell, head of house)

1 f 16-25 (Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell, wife)

1 f -10 (Mary Ann b. 1816)

1 m -10 (William b. 1818)

NO SLAVES

1823

Before 1823 James Isbell staked claim to land in Township 4S Range 4E (NENE of Section 9), a mile NE of Isbell Cemetery and his brother John William Isbell's property. James's land here is shown on an 1823 survey as J.R. Isbell (I.D.#6998) and brother John's is shown as J.W. Isbell (which adjoins a larger parcel in which his name is written "John Isbell.")

The survey map identifying James' parcel is hard to read, but looks like J. r. Isbell.

But this same land patent was recorded in the name James R. Isbell in 1858, 14 after his death and acquired by his estate (Boyd, p.156). The estate of James R. Isbell was entered in the Probate Court of Jackson County in 1857 and the estate settlement lists all his heirs (Jackson County, Alabama, Probate Court: April 1857, pages 181-182; June 1857, pages 241-242).

Interestingly, on this same survey dated 1823, a mile east of this property is a tract (#30338) shown in the name of E. Conaway adjoining J. Gentle, Culvers (inlaws), and near neighbors Levi Isbell (m. Sarah Birdwell), B.B. Allen (who married Sarah Birdwell's daughter Mary Ann Isbell), and Elizabeth's brother-in-law Zachariah Isbell. This same tract patent (#6944) was not recorded until 1860 when it was recorded in the name Elizabeth Conaway, who was the widow of James Isbell: Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell Conaway. As she did not remarry until 1846-47 to John Conaway (who died in 1853), the name of E. Conway on the 1823 survey appears to have been added in 1858-60. The 1823 survey and 1860 patent map shows that the property of Sarah (Mrs. Levi) Isbell and adjoining neighbor John Gentle adjoined that of her sister, Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell Conway. (Also see Family Maps of Jackson County, AL by Gregory A. Boyd, p.361.)

1828

In 1828, James Isbell was a delegate from Blue Springs Church to the Mud Creek Baptist Association (ref., The First Hundred Years, A History of Baptists in Jackson Co., Alabama from 1821 until 1921 by J. Nelson Varnell [Samford University Library, Special Collections], vol. 2, p. 19).

1830 census Jackson Co, AL

1 male 30-39 (James Isbell, head)
1 male 10-14 (1816-20) Wm b. 3 Dec 1818
1 male 5-9 (1821-25) John S. b.25 Nov 1820
1 male 5-9 (1821-24) Allen b. 23 Mar 1825
1 female 30-39 (1791-99) (Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell b.1797-9)
1 female 10-14 (1816-1820) Mary Polly b1816 (married 1834)
1 female under 5 (1825-30) Susan b1827
1 female under 5 (1825-30) Margaret b1829

SLAVES

1 female 24-35
1 female under 10

From the Bible record, there should be 7 children shown in 1830, 4 girls and 3 boys, but one daughter is missing, probably Sarah Amanda (a family tree says she died 1830).

1840 Jackson County, Alabama, census:

1 male 40-49 (James Isbell, head, age 49)
1 male 20-29 (1811-20) John S b1820
1 male 15-19 (1821-1825) Allen 1825
1 male 5-9 (1835-9) Benjamin 1831
1 male 5-9 (1835-9) James H 1833
1 male 5-9 (1835-39) Zachariah b1835
1 female 40-49 (Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell, wife)
1 female 10-14 (1826-30) Sarah b1822 (age 18--gone?) or Susan b1827
1 female 10-14 (1826-30) Susan b1827 (or Margaret b1829)
1 female under 5 Margaret b1829 (or Eliz b1838)
1 female under 5 Eliz b1838 (or Lucinda b1840)

SLAVE

1 female 10-23

William & Mary Polly were gone by 1840. Sarah Amanda born 1822 would be 18, was gone or dead. A family tree says Sarah Manda died 1830. She definitely was not named in the 1857 or 1890 probate records.

1844 DEATH AND BURIAL

According to James Isbell's descendants, the Houk and Murray families, James R. Isbell was buried at Blue Spring Cemetery at Larkinsville, where he was delegate. Other descendants said he was buried at "Larkinsville Cemetery," which has caused some confusion as that is the cemetery that is also called Beech Grove. All these cemeteries are nearby and not far from the Isbell family cemetery.

1846

Jackson County, Alabama,

Will and Probate Record K, p. 108:

John Isbell, guardian of the minor heirs of James Isbell deceased, 1846, showing a payment by him to Elizabeth Isbell for "rent for 1845." Note that this is the widow of James Isbell.

Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell, widow, married John Conway 1846-47. In the 1850 census they were listed in Jackson County. He died Sept 7, 1853.

Descendants qualify for membership in First Families of Alabama (through the Alabama Genealogical Society) and the First Families of Tennessee (through the East Tennessee Historical Society) #10,880, #10,881. Also the First Families of Kentucky (through John Miller), Colonial Dames of the XVII Century (through Capt. Zachariah Isbell and George Birdwell), Sons of the Republic of Texas and Daughters of the Republic of Texas (through John Birdwell).

Jackson County, Alabama, Probate Court:

April 1857, pages 181-182

June 1857, pages 241-242.

These name heirs of James Isbell, including Susan Murray, wife of Jackson Murray.

These do not show the widow Elizabeth, but Jackson County, Alabama, Will and Probate Record K, p. 108, shows John Isbell, guardian of the minor heirs of James Isbell deceased, 1846, made payment to widow Elizabeth Isbell for "rent for 1845." By 1850, she was Elizabeth Conaway, having remarried 1846-47, and widowed again in 1853. She was living with her son Levi in 1860 and again in 1870 with son Levi and daughter Lucinda Murray (documented heirs) in Jackson County.

Heirs of James Isbell are also listed in his brother Zachariah's estate administration in 1890 (DeKalb County, Alabama, Probate Minute Book K, pp. 582-586).

The children of James Isbell and Elizabeth Birdwell were:

1. Mary Ann "Polly" Isbell born 1 APR 1816 (probably named for maternal grandmother, Mary Allen Birdwell)
2. William Birdwell Isbell born 3 DEC 1818, d. 14 Feb 1856 White Co., Arkansas)
3. John S. Isbell born 25 NOV 1820
4. Sarah Amanda Isbell born 25 DEC 1822, died 27 Apr 1830 according to a family tree (taken from another Birdwell bible and a newspaper item; not on 1830-40 censuses nor 1857 and 1890 probate records)
5. Allen Isbell born 23 MAR 1825 (named for uncle Allen Birdwell)
6. Susan Anna Isbell born 18 JAN 1827 (m. W.D.J. Murray)
7. Margaret Isbell born 24 MAR 1829
8. Benjamin Isbell born 6 MAY 1831
9. James H. Isbell born 25 AUG 1833
10. Zachariah Isbell born 25 JUN 1835
11. Elizabeth Isbell born 18 JAN 1838
12. Lucinda Isbell born 8 JUL 1840 (tombstone says 1841) m. John K. Murray
13. Levi Isbell born 17 JUL 1843 (tombstone says 17 July 1847)

Some internet genealogies confuse this James R. Isbell with his cousin Dr. James R. Isbell (c1761-1840) from Greene County, Tennessee, father of William M. Isbell (15 Jun 1816-2 Dec 1877) and James H. Isbell who were at the Battle of San Jacinto, Texas. Some family trees show Zachariah Isbell Jr. as the probable father of Dr. James R. Isbell, although Zachariah Jr.'s brother William most likely was his father, or another brother, Jason.

JAMES R. ISBELL'S WIFE:

ELIZABETH BIRDWELL,

Daughter of John Birdwell & Mary Allen.

Granddaughter of George Birdwell.

First Families of Tennessee (East Tennessee Historical Society), #10.880 and #10.881.

FOOTPRINTS, vol. 23-24 (Ft. Worth Genealogical Soc., 1979) p.107, lists Elizabeth Birdwell (m. James Isbell) and Sarah Birdwell (m. Levi Isbell) as daughters of John Birdwell. One of Elizabeth Isbell's sons and three grandsons were named Birdwell.

Elizabeth Birdwell was born in Tennessee Dec. 31, 1797 or Jan. 1, 1800 (1850-70 censuses prove Tennessee was birth place).

Tombstone and 1850 census give 1800 date while the James Isbell Bible and 1860-70 censuses give the 1797 date.

In 1813, Elizabeth Birdwell married James Isbell in Madison County, Alabama, three years before her younger sister Sarah Birdwell (born 1799) married James Isbell's younger brother Levi, indicating that the 1797 date in the Bible is most likely the correct date.

John Birdwell and family moved to Madison County in 1805 FROM TENNESSEE (see historic marker, Old Bethel Church, Marshall Co., AL; 1805 date is from Allen Birdwell's diary).

The 1809 census shows John Birdwell had 6 daughters.

Elizabeth fits as one of these. The other five known daughters born before 1809 were Mary/Polly, Nancy, Sarah, Susan, and Jane.

In 1812, John Birdwell's brother Moses Birdwell moved FROM GEORGIA to Madison County and was the only other Birdwell family in the county in 1813. Moses lived in Georgia 1791-1812; all his children were born in Georgia and Alabama.

Moses and 2nd wife Hannah Falkindon had a daughter Elizabeth born 1822 in Limestone Co., AL. In 1818, Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell's husband James Isbell sold land in Limestone Co., AL. to her uncle Moses Birdwell.

John Birdwell and his brother Moses were the only two Birdwell families in Madison County, Alabama, in 1813, when Elizabeth Birdwell married James Isbell there, and both Birdwell brothers were sons of George Birdwell.

Jan. 4, 1956 letter (on Alabama State Archives letterhead) from Maud McLure Kelly to Ethlyn Rainey quoting Rainey's previous letter (Dec 1955) in turn quoting MM Kelly's earlier letter (probably Nov-Dec 1955) states "Elizabeth Birdwell who married James Isbell (was) the daughter of John Birdwell and sister of Sarah H. Birdwell Isbell." (Isbell and Birdwell vertical files, microfilm, Alabama State Archives.)

Maud McLure Kelly, Acquisitions Agent and Asst. Director of the Alabama Department of Archives and History, was the first woman lawyer in Alabama, first woman lawyer qualified to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, and inductee in the Alabama Women's Hall of Fame. She drafted the legislation making Alabama's County records the property of the state archives.

This was 80 years after Elizabeth's death and Ethlyn appears to have been searching for documentary proof that Elizabeth and Sarah Birdwell were sisters, as Miss Kelly determined through logic; Ethlyn did have documentation that James and Levi Isbell were brothers, which Miss Kelly did not. It seems less likely this predated her hearing the family legends she and her sisters learned of in visiting relatives throughout North Alabama over some 40 years.

Letter from Lt. Col. Ethlyn Isbell Rainey dated Sept. 12, 1978, p. 7, again stated that Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell was the daughter of John Birdwell and sister of her great-grandmother Sarah Birdwell Isbell.

Lt. Col. Ethlyn Isbell Rainey (NSDAR #654021), was a member of the Heroes of Kings Mountain Chapter DAR along with two sisters, one of whom (Mrs. Dorsett Davis) was also Regent (NSDAR Ancestor #A098196).

In 1954 Ethlyn Isbell Rainey was the GOP nominee for State Treasurer of Alabama.

Ethlyn's grandfather Elijah Miller Isbell was a double first cousin of the children of Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell and, as the administrator of the estate of his uncle Zachariah Isbell, he documented all known children of James and Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell on his list of heirs, including Susan Anna Isbell Murray, his double first cousin, whose descendants are currently being considered for DAR membership. Ethlyn Rainey grew up in the home with Elijah Miller Isbell's widow, her grandmother, and was well educated in the Isbell-Birdwell family histories, which she researched her entire life, so she was well qualified to state the family relationships correctly. She knew who her grandfather's double first cousins were.

She wrote of two family legends:

(1) that the two Isbell brothers worked for John Birdwell and married his two daughters (p.7); and
(2) that John Birdwell gave slaves to his children before moving to Texas; that Levi and Sarah Birdwell Isbell refused theirs but that James and Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell accepted theirs (also reiterated in other letters of EIR and Odessa Isbell).

Both family stories were reiterated by Ethlyn's sister Cora Walker, Ph.D., another D.A.R. member in good standing (NSDAR #754316), in Heritage of Marshall Co., AL. (2000), p.199; also cited in Families and History of Sullivan County, Tennessee [Vol. 1 1779-1992; Vol. 2. 1779-2006] (Holston Territory Genealogical Society, 1992), p. 349; and Isbell Country by Odessa Morrow Isbell, pp. 19-21, 229; The Mitchells of Linn Flat by Gwenneth Mitchell).

The 1830 census shows James and Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell owned 2 female slaves, and the 1840 census shows 1 female slave (probably the younger of the two in 1830). These were probably housekeepers for Elizabeth.

Another great-granddaughter of Levi Isbell and Sarah Birdwell who wrote of Elizabeth Birdwell Isbell and Sarah Birdwell Isbell being sisters was (NSDAR #754316) Cora Helen Isbell Walker, Ph.D. (Library Sciences), member of the Heroes of Kings Mountain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Guntersville, Alabama. Cora H. Walker wrote the following, published in Heritage of Marshall Co., AL. (2000), p.199:

"John Birdwell ... organized Birdwell Spring(s) Baptist Church near Moulton, AL... two Isbell brothers, James and Levi, who came from Tennessee to Madison County, they worked for Mr. B. Both brothers married Birdwell sisters. James married Elizabeth and Levi married Sarah (Sallie). When Mr. B. and family left Madison Co. for Rusk Co. Texas, he offered Elizabeth and James and Levi and Sallie slaves -- James and Elizabeth accepted, but Levi refused as he did not believe in slavery, he and Sallie were given money instead." Written by Cora H. Isbell Walker, Ph.D. (NSDAR #754316).

Isbell Country by Odessa Isbell contained excerpts of transcripts from two interviews by Ethlyn Rainey of elderly Isbell descendants, showing the typical such interview made when visiting relatives in North Alabama and Tennessee over her 40+ years and gathering family stories. Letter on State of Alabama Department of Archives and History letterhead, Sept. 27, 1979, Winston E. Walker III to Mrs. Wilford Isbell: Winston E. Walker III, County Records Manager, states: "I am assuming that the James R. you refer to stands for James Richardson Isbell, which is a common name in the Isbell family." He further stated that his aunts Ethlyn Rainey and Hazel Roberts "have been researching the Isbell family and associate(d) lines for at least the last thirty years." Winston E. Walker III (1946-2004) was on the state archives staff 1975-83 and worked in records preservation elsewhere. The Liberty County Records Center in Hinesville, Georgia is located in the Winston E. Walker III Building named for him. He was past president of the Georgia Records Association, the Huntsville-North Alabama Chapter of the Association of Records Managers and Administrators (ARMA), and the Society of Alabama Archivists.
